FEMA Trailer Survey

This is a SURVEY. We have no units at this time, but notice has been provided from a very reliable FEMA source there may be some units available for donation by the first of the year through the Reutilization, Transfer, and Donation (RTD) program through GSA. If FEMA does release any of these units, it is a direct result of the hard work of the National Association of State Agencies for Surplus Property (NASASP) officers.

Here is what we DO NOT KNOW:

1. How many
2. Lengths
3. Widths
4. State where units are located
5. Cost to transport from location to your site
6. Handling charge which includes transportation cost from location to your site

What we DO know:

1. Travel trailers and mobile homes may become available in early 2007
2. The pictures show some of the styles that FEMA has but what is offered will vary
3. There may be various sizes and styles available
4. Some travel trailers may have slide out extensions
5. Mobile homes will be 14'-18' wide x 64-80' long
6. Mobile homes will have three bedrooms, one bath, Washer/Dryer connections, some with/without furnished kitchens, some with/without furniture
7. These units will be in condition from new to slightly used
8. Handling charges will include the cost of transportation to your site or ours
9. These units will have an 18 month use restriction
10. Personal use of Federal or State property is prohibited by law

I know what I offer you is sketchy, but it is the best we have at this time. Units can only be obtained to use in eligible programs. Some examples are class rooms, offices, police command posts, Emergency Management offices, etc.

We will not request more units than we have a need for so you must get your request in before they become available. We will contact you with more details prior to making any requests.
